Sex the Key to the Bible The World's Three Greatest Books
By Sidney C. Tapp, Ph.D.
"The Truth About the Bible," about the Bible's origin, why Jesus was a Man and Not a Woman, three hundred pages, 10c. "The Truth About the Bible," over one hundred and seventy-five pages, 10c. All clear, plain, and books treat of the sex of the Bible, and show that the Bible is a book of sex and a book of spirit, and that sex is the dividing line between the physical and spiritual worlds. They show that disease, sickness and insanity are within the sex, and that sex was the original sin and cause of death. They are attracting the attention of the modern scientist, philosopher, and theologian.
The sex of the Bible is the key to the Bible, and the sex of the Bible is the key to the sex of the world. It will probably do more to shape the thoughts of the future than all the books ever

Anti-Segregation Notes

AT UNION MEMORIAL

A large and an enthusiastic audience greeted Dr. J. W. B. Brown at Union Memorial Church last Monday night.

In a forceful, logical manner Dr.
Brown urged his hearers to not stand idly by and allow their right as American citizens to be taken from them.
"Do not lose your heads in this fight, but make many appeals to the people.
All people of all nations come to America for fair play, and they have a sense of justice. Men keep cool heads in this hour of excitement."

In his introductory remarks, Prof.
Frank L. Williams, who introduced the speaker, shared the apparent excited condition of the large audience, advised his hearers to keep cool heads.
"The your brain is as hot as mine," said the speaker.

"Dr. B. G. Shaw, pastor of the Metropolitan A. M. E. Zion Church, presided at the meeting.

A number of persons have volunteered their service to help in the distribution of the 100,000 anti-segregation circulars among white people, especially Mr. Oiler, of the High School, offers the services of the Boy Scouts.
Mrs. Victoria Clay-Haley will assist us in getting 200 from her section of the city. Let everyone get out the army of distributors. Literature can be required at the Anti-segregation headquarters on Saturday, February 19.

Rev. N. H. Peck read a splendid paper at the Branch meeting on Tuesday night. Other speakers were Mr.
Geo. B. Vashon, Atty. Abner Burgess and Atty. Homer O. Phillips. Bay-Peck's paper discussed the origin, growth and development of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People, and the splendid fight it is making in this country for the removal of the Negro. The St. Louis Branch now has over five hundred members.

Twenty-five thousand handbills are being circulated for the purpose of advertising the mass meeting, Sunday, February 21, at 8 p. m. at Central High School. Every colored person is requested to do what he can to get his white friends there. Those who are able to get a large number of white people converted to our way of thinking on the segregation question, the Colored vote will be lost. Mr. Log, Judge Ransier and others will speak.
Mayor Kiel will preside. Let us do what we can to help get Central High School crowded with white people.

The following letter was sent from Anti-segregation Headquarters to Mr.
W. Ashbie Hawkins, attorney for Hallimore Branch, Hon. Harry M. Cummings, member of Baltimore City Council, Bishop John Hurst, Dr. Francis B. Car-doso, both members of our National Board, with regard to the sensational news item which appeared in the St.
Louis Republic on Monday, February 13.

lic containing sensational statements ing segregation. Read interview from Miss Kathryn M. Johnson:

"Telegram received. My opposition to the segregation law is known far and wide and has been shown in my speech in the city council and my vote against the three ordinances which have been before that body. I have never, nor will I ever, waiver in my opposition to the law which creates antagonism between the races and which are in plain violation of the law of the land. Doctor Lyon and I will write you at length tomorrow.
His views will be in accord in opposition to segregation."

Marketing for the White House.
Mrs. Wilson as Mrs. Galt, was in the habit of going down to Central market two or three times a week and doing her own marketing. After the announcement of her engagement she gave that up, as she found the amount of attention attracted embarrassing.
She will find that the housekeeper in her new home has the marketing habit and will see to it personally that her mistress has just exactly what she wants. The present housekeeper, Mrs.
Jeffers, was installed by Mrs. Taff, who, at the beginning of her regime, took her housekeeper to the great market and personally introduced and instructed her. For Mrs. Taff took the marketing habit, and it while at the White House she found it expedient to do it by proxy, she saw as it from the start that it was done according to her own ideas.

Little Brother Agals.

Gertie (who has been kissed by Arthur under the mistletoe, which he discovered hanging in the hall)—Oh, Arthur, you wicked wretch, to take advantage of me like that! I wish I knew who hung it there; I'd pay them out, that's all.

Arthur (to little brother later in the evening)—Tommy, I am going to take Gertie away from you soon; will you not?

Tommy—Not a bit. She and I are not friends.

Gertie—And why is that?

Tommy (headless of Gertie's kissing dances)—Oh, she hated my name for tying her off the chair when she was sitting up that mistletoe in the hall.

His Official Capacity.

William Collier and a couple of other actors were dining in a hotel when Collier directed his companion's attention to a very snapper-looking man with a suspiciously red nose who had just passed.

"A very prominent member of the Larchmont Yacht club," announced Collier, with a grave air.

"That's all right," said one of the players, who, as Collier knows, always gives a strong interest in the deluge of names.

Saturday, February 19, at Lane Tabernacle, 4 M. E. Church. The speakers will be Rev. J. W. Dyer, Dr. Chas. H.
Phillips, Miss Kathryn Johnson, Congressman A. C. Dyer, and others.
J. McKelvey, ex-governor, Rev. R.
H. C. Hyder, chairman.

THE MINISTERS' DUTY.

In a body, the interdenominational Ministers' Alliance visited the headquarters of Central Republic City Committee last Tuesday night, and made a plea for the untold support of that organization in defeating the segregation proposition. It was stated that the members of the Central Committee pledged their support in the defeat of the measure.

Dr. B. G. Shaw, and Dr. J. T. Carlson were the spokesmen for the ministers. Dr. B. F. Abbott, pastor of Union Memorial M. E. Church, is president of the Alliance.

Following is a letter from the Socialist Party:

Socialist Party of St. Louis, Headquarters, 906 Chouteau.
St. Louis, Mo., Feb. 15, 1916.

Per Mrs. H. A. Smith, Secretary, 3137 Pine St., City.

Dear Madam:

Your communication under date of January 23, pertaining to the request that our organization go on record as opposing segregation, has been received and will be acted on at an special election to be held on the 29th of this month. We have held our General Committee at its meeting held on February 7, and the undersigned was instructed to advise you of the following:

"That the Socialist Party of St. Louis is most positively opposed to the segregation law. It is in this or any other city of our country, and we request that all our party members and socialist voters vote against this measure at the election to be held on February 29, 1916."

We also urge that our members use every other honorable and lawful means to defeat this segregation proposition."

Respectfully yours, (Signed) W. M. Brandt, Sec'y.

Mr. Charles A. Pittman, 3137 Pine St.,
St. Louis, Mo.

Dear Sir:

Your letter of February 5, in which you call attention to my promise in connection with the segregation movement is at hand and I note your request that I "take the stump" against this proposition.

You may rest assured that my pledge was in good faith and I am ready at any time to redeem same by publicly speaking in opposition to the segregation movement. If you will inform me of the occasions on which you desire my services I will be glad to assist you.

Very truly yours,
(Signed) Henry W. Kiel, Mayor.
